NEW DRAFTEES

REGISTRANTS OF AUGUST 24TH TO BE MADE READY FOR SERVICE OCTOBER 1ST

Chairman Lanterman of the local Exemption Board states that registration places have been secured for outlying districts but not yet definitely fixed for Glendale precincts, which will be announced next week.

As an item of interest he reports that three mail sacks full of Questionnaires arrived Thursday afternoon for use in connection with the new draft.

His most important news is that the Board has received an order from the Adjutant General to immediately classify all of the August 24th registrants and prepare them for service as early as possible and not later than the first week in October. In this connection the Chairman stated that physical examinations will be held as soon as the classification is complete and the notices can be sent out.

Registration Places

Places for the registration under the new draft of September 12th of men between the ages of 18 and 21 and of 31 and 45, have been assigned for outlying districts as follows:

La Canada—Flintridge Garage.

La Crescenta Precinct—Jackson's Ice Cream Parlor.

Burbank Precincts No. 1 and No. 2, City Hall; Precincts No. 3 and No. 4, Lewis Drug Store.

Eagle Rock—Precincts 1 and 2, Public Library; Precincts 3, 4 and 5, Central School building.

Verdugo Precinct No. 1, 1305 No. Central Ave.; Precinct No. 2, 1216 Sycamore.

PURPLE AND YELLOW LUNCHEON

An exceedingly pretty purple and yellow three-course luncheon was given by Mrs. Colin Cable at her attractive home at 755 Columbus avenue, Thursday, at 1:30 o'clock. Purple and yellow were the asters and zinnias which centered the handsome table spread with a beautiful luncheon set of Cluny lace, and these colors were repeated in the nut baskets and hand-painted place cards. Guests entertained were Mesdames Katherine Shank, Harry Rogers, L. V. Ashton, Le Roy Bosserman, W. E. Farlander, Miss Gifford of Boston, Mesdames Harry Duffield, L. N. Hagood, Frank Arnold, Calvin Whiting, Christiaan Timmner, A. S. Chase, Sam Stoddard and W. W. Ramsay. Following the dinner, the ladies spent a social afternoon singing war songs and enjoying a few solo numbers contributed by Mrs. Shank, Mrs. Bosserman and Mrs. Arnold, the latter singing Mrs. Hagood's composition, "The Sandman," by special request of the guests.

HOUSE PARTY

Quite a house party has been entertained this week at the home of Mrs. Minette Sherman, 1510 Vine street, who has welcomed her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton W. Newton and two children of Glendive, Montana, who expect to make Glendale their home for the present and who are now looking for a location. Mr. Newton has been connected with the postal service as P. O. Inspector throughout the Northwest. Friends of Dorothy Sherman have also been entertained, viz., Miss Florence Polliard of Redlands and Miss Geneva Heiser of Riverside. On Thursday Mrs. Sherman and daughters Dorothy and Marguerite, C. W. Newton and family and Miss Heiser spent the day at Long Beach.

ELDER ANDROSS HERE

ON HIS WAY TO THE ORIENT TO VISIT ADVENTIST MISSION STATIONS

Elder E. E. Andross, Vice-President of the General Conference and now stationed in Washington, D. C., arrived in Glendale Thursday night and is now a guest at the Sanitarium. He will probably be here until Sunday. He preached this (Sabbath) morning at the Carr street church in Los Angeles. Secretary Coffin reports that Elder Andross will sail for the Orient September 12th with the intention of visiting the various missions of the church in Japan, China, India and Burmah, and getting acquainted with the work of his denomination in the far East. Elder C. W. Flaiz of College Place, Washington State, president of the North Pacific Union Conference, will accompany him.

Elder J. W. Christian, president of the Pacific Union Conference, leaves Saturday night for Oakland and Lodi and will return the middle of next week. He goes to confer with some of the Conference leaders up there.

BROADWAY WORK

WILL BE HELD UP UNTIL CAPITAL ISSUES COMMITTEE WILL APPROVE BONDS

The improvement of Broadway from Glendale avenue east to the city limits of Eagle Rock, for which all preliminary proceedings have been taken by the City, will probably be held up until after the war. A communication from the Capital Issues Commitete at Washington declining to approve a bond issue for the improvement, which was read at the meeting of the Board of Trustees Thursday night, will have that effect. The proceedings have reached the point of advertising for bids, the Board has acquired jurisdiction and the plan is to simply hold up the proceedings until the approval of the Capital Issues Committee can be had.

The estimated cost of the improvement was $30,000, which would have been assessed against the improvement district created, including the frontage along the street and intersecting streets for half a block on either side.

The petition relative to the improvement of West Broadway which called forth a protest last night, was presented to the Board two weeks ago and asked the trustees to take the necessary steps to widen Broadway from Central avenue west to San Fernando and to cut out the jog in the thoroughfare by making a diagonal street extending from the intersection of Broadway and Central avenue to a point on Broadway about 300 feet west of Central. It is said the majority of the property owners are in favor of cutting out the jog in the street. The protests are directed against the widening of the portions of the street already improved.

That portion of the street lately annexed, extending from the improved part to the San Fernando road, has been temporarily improved with oil and gravel and is now in good shape for travel.

Other recent street improvement work includes the repair and resurfacing of San Fernando road from Los Feliz road to the south city limits, and also the improvement of Los Feliz road to the west city limits.

RED CROSS NOTES

A very nice donation has been received by the Red Cross Shop on Brand boulevard, of which Mrs. Jack Boettner is chairman. Charles E. Nickerl of 1415 Burchett street has given sixty quarts of assorted fruit canned by his wife, who passed away in Arizona a few months ago of heart trouble. It is now on display and sale at the shop and should be in request now that canning sugar is hard to get. Mr. Nickerl expects to continue as a resident of Glendale but will not need so much fruit and is glad to have it benefit the Red Cross.

Acting Vice-Chairman Spencer reports an order just received for four dozen empty shoe white and jet oil bottles from a boy who is fitting up a little chemical laboratory and who can use bottles of that size and shape. He is willing to pay the local Red Cross a little more than he would have to give for them in Los Angeles. Persons who have bottles of this kind are requested to bring or send, them to Mr. Spencer at headquarters. By so doing they will benefit three parties, themselves in finding a place for superfluous junk, the Red Cross and the boy who is fitting up the laboratory.

EQUALIZATION OF SUGAR PRICE

As a consequence of the higher price for the domestic beet and cane sugars which will be soon coming into the market, and in order to minimize the inequalities that would result from having this new domestic crop at the new price and the old foreign crop at the old price in the market at the same time, the Food Administration announces that the United States Sugar Equalization Board will on a date to be announced later purchase all sugars in the country or in transit at the old price and immediately resell them back to the holders at the new price. The exact date at which the new price will become effective has not yet been determined, nor has it been settled yet what the new price will be.

EUGENE CHAFIN IN GLENDALE

Eugene Chafin, who ran for president on the Prohibition ticket at the last national election and who is one of the most distinguished apostles of temperance, will occupy the pulpit of Rev. O. P. Rider at the Tropico Presbyterian church tomorrow morning, September 7th, at 11 o'clock. His theme will be "Bone Dry California." He is said to be one of the greatest public orators on the lecture platform.

FRENCH BEYOND HAM

MADE STEADY PROGRESS THROUGHOUT THE NIGHT BETWEEN THE OISE AND THE SOMME

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, September 7.—The French are fighting their way forward beyond Ham and Chauny and progressed throughout the night. Today they are between the Oise and the Somme.

They captured Pithon and several other towns beyond Ham, in the direction of St. Simon. Further south they took Cugny.

North of the Oise they entered Tergnier, three miles from La Fere.

North of the Ailette river they took the whole of Coucy Low Forest and occupied positions eleven miles west of Laon, overcoming fierce resistance.

South of the Ailette good progress was made, several villages being occupied.

The French captured Tergnier and cut the German communications between St. Quentin and Laon.

NINETY-THREE PER CENT UNDER PERSHING

WAR DEPARTMENT ADMITS THAT BIG AMERICAN FORCE IS BEING FORMED FOR A SPECIAL PURPOSE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, September 7.—Members of the Senate, following a conference with the War Department today, said they were told that ninety-three per cent of the American troops now in France are under the direct command of General Pershing.

They took this to indicate that a big American force is being formed for some particular purpose, although it was not indicated what the purpose was.

Chief of Staff General March announced that General Pershing is sending a list of 20,000 additional slightly wounded Americans to Washington by courier. This will make the total American casualties 46,930.

ASK FREE PASTURE FOR REINDEER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, September 7.—The Canadian government is considering a petition to grant free grazing privileges on 76,000 square miles of wild territory in Northern Manitoba for reindeer. The improvement of the food supply and the help these animals would afford for transportation to northern points, are being urged as reasons for the permit.

ST. PAUL'S SYSTEM

THE TWIN CITY USES JUNKMEN FOR SALVAGE COLLECTORS

Miss Gertrude Braun of 900 Glendale avenue has returned from the East after a ten months' visit with friends in Minneapolis, St. Paul and Chicago. When asked for her impression of conditions there, she said:

"In the East they seem to feel the war more than we do out here, and I believe more women are doing war work and Red Cross work than here and there is a great scarcity of men there. I did quite a bit of work in the salvage department in St. Paul and found it very interesting. They have worked out a system that rivals anything in the United States. Los Angeles was the first city to establish such a department and in the beginning lots of the cities followed the Los Angeles plan, but they have found that the St. Paul system works out much better. It makes use of the junk peddlers to collect the salvage from the householders with a system of honor cards and coupon books. The city is districted and the Red Cross salvage workers distribute the honor cards to the housewives who have any junk to be collected. Everything is gathered up there except tin cans, for which they do not seem to have found a use. When the housewife hangs the honor card in the window it is seen by some peddler, who is thus advised that there is junk to be collected at that house. When he calls for it, instead of paying in money, he pays in Red Cross Salvage Coupons. To get the coupons he must go to the Salvage Department and buy the coupon books represnting $5 or $10 and containing coupons of all denominations from 5c to 50c. On the honor card is a price list for salvage showing what the junkman should pay, so the housewife is protected against being cheated. The Red Cross benefits by the system because the junkman must first go to the Chapter to get his coupons before he can make collections. When he has bought it with the coupons, the junk belongs to him to be disposed of as he sees fit. It gives him the chance to make a little profit instead of putting him out of business.

"A great many people want to donate fine old things, silver platters, antique furniture, etc., and these gifts are disposed of at sales which are held every Saturday. Between the coupon books and the sales, the St. Paul Salvage Department makes several hundred dollars a week. Dealers in second-hand clothing come in and buy at the Saturday sales.

"Then the department there has a motor truck with motor girls to drive it. Many society girls are doing Red Cross work and they take turns in driving the truck and collecting the things people do not want to sell to peddlers. They wear special uniforms and look very stunning in them."

Miss Braun was in the employ of the chairman of the salvage department, whose regular business was the coal business. She says the fuel situation in the East is very serious. There is a severe shortage and coal is being given out in allotments. One can only get two-thirds of his winter's supply at this time and whether he will ever get the other third is an open question. She thinks this situation may lead many people to come to the milder climate of California, that on account of the coal shortage more people will come than ever before, especially since excursion rates have been announced, though the reduced rate is for but one way.

APPRECIATION

Editor Glendale Evening News:

I wish to express through your columns my sincere appreciation to all of the many kind friends for their splendid work and co-operation during the Primary Campaign, which resulted in my being nominated for member of Assembly on the Prohibition and Democratic tickets, and possibly on the Progressive as well.

I also wish to express my appreciation for the kindly spirit and fair treatment that has been shown by all of my opponents during the entire campaign. I am sure no ill-feeling has existed, and while after we got into the race each one of us tried to win, yet we all felt perfectly willing to cheerfully abide by the decision at the polls.

ARTHUR G. LINDLEY.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Balthis of 519 North Brand boulevard, returned Wednesday from a trip to Camp Kearny, Coronado and San Diego. They were gone about five days. Frank Balthis returned the same day from the Coachella Valley, where he has been doing ranch work for the past two months.

WEATHER FORECAST—Unsettled weather, probable showers in the mountains. Southwesterly winds.

ARMY HONORS

SISTER AND BROTHER OF DON ERSKINE WIN COMMISSIONS

Don Erskine of 300 Blanche avenue (Maryland), has received a letter from his sister, Mary Erskine, who enlisted as an army nurse and is now stationed at Kelly Aviation Field near San Antonio, conveying the news that she passed her examinations for overseas appointment with honor and has been made a Second Lieutenant with a pay check of $80 a month. She is wearing her gold stripes with considerable pride, and feels that she is as much a soldier as the men who are under her care in the hospital. She is under army orders and if she violates regulations is subject as they are to court martial. When she left here she was night superintendent in the Crocker Hospital, Los Angeles, and on arriving at Kelly Field was given a similar assignment with 350 men under her care. She expects to be sent abroad soon and is hoping her orders will take her to Italy. Not many nurses are being sent to France now. They are going instead to England and Italy.

Honors are coming thick and fast to the Erskine family. A letter has just been received from Emmett E. Erskine, whose home is in the Imperial Valley and who is a brother of Don Erskine, that he was last week made a Sergeant. He is in an eastern camp.

JUBILEE SERVICE

Tomorrow will be Jubilee Day at the Glendale Presbyterian church, when the service of dedication of the beautiful new pipe organ given to the Church by M. Ambrosini as a memorial for his wife, will take place at 11 o'clock.

It will be a very impressive, specially prepared litany service led by Pastor W. E. Edmonds, in which the congregation will join, ending with a dedicatory prayer, anthem and benediction. The fine musical program arranged for this service by Choir Director A. M. Z. des Plantes includes the following numbers:

Voluntary, "The Pilgrim's Song of Hope"—Batiste.

Hallelujah Chorus, by the Choir—Handel.

Solo, Mrs. Nelson, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought"—R. S. Ambrose.

Hymn Without Words (Gratitude)—A. M. Z. des Plantes.

Dedication Anthem, "Sanctus," from the St. Cecelia Mass—Gounod.

Postlude, "Finale," Sonata in G Minor—H. J. Storer.

The sermon by the pastor will be the fifth in the Bethany Series, "The Tears of Jesus." At its conclusion, the "Hymn Without Words" will be played by Mr. des Plantes on the organ, and immediately following the ceremony of burning the mortgage will take place for, as already announced, this service will celebrate an additional gift of $2500 to lift the mortgage from the church by a donor whose name is not given.

SUGAR USERS, ATTENTION

I am about to open an office in the Red Cross headquarters over the Bank of Glendale on Brand boulevard, where some one will be in attendance to issue permits for sugar and give information on food conservation, every morning from 9 to 12. Persons wishing sugar for canning are asked to take note of these hours and change of location.

MRS. C. E. HUTCHINSON,
Food Director for Glendale District.

CLASS ONE MEN

22 OUT OF 24 REGISTERED AUGUST 24TH ARE LIABLE TO IMMEDIATE SERVICE

Chairman Lanterman of the local Exemption Board reports with pride that twenty-two out of the twenty-four men registered in this district August 24th are Class 1 men and are liable for immediate service.

Registrars from all over the district who have been appointed to handle the registration September 12th have been summoned to meet the Legal Advisory Board next Monday afternoon at three o'clock at the Board headquarters in the Glendale City Hall.

Another important bit of information released by Chairman Lanterman is that a letter has been received by the Board from the Provost Marshal General which intimates that the curing of remedials who have been placed in deferred classes is now to be compulsory. Up to this time it has been optional with the men, but from now on they will be ordered to hospitals for the necessary treatment or operations.

Not every rug can boast of Persian lineage these war time days, nor even show a New England Mill pedigree. Those fluffy conceits in dainty colors and the old-fashioned braided mats (like Grandmother used to make) which are now conspicuous in Red Cross Shop windows and at bazaars, spring from the lowly rag. From workrooms of dressmakers, milliners, manufacturers, Red Cross chapters, etc., scraps are collected, and homes are picked clean of rags from cellar to garret to feed the looms that turn such salvage into articles of beauty and utility.

J. J. Banta, the real estate dealer, reports that a good many trades are being made of houses for land and of land for houses. Mrs. Pearl Keller, head of the Keller School, has exchanged the automobile she purchased last year for a handsome new Buick Sedan, bought through the agency of J. G. Hunchberger. She so frequently has occasion to convey pupils in party attire to entertainments that she decided an enclosed car would be of more service to her than the ordinary open auto. On occasion she can use it as a dressing room in preparing children for appearing on the stage.

Worth Double

With the new draft-law in force it has now become a question with all men of 45 and under how much insurance, and what form, can I GET? Of course nearly all these men without dependents are already "out of it" as far as we are concerned and the others are limited as to amount.

Nevertheless our business is good because, with the older men, the exempted ones, and women, life-insurance was never better advertised or more highly prized. To nearly every individual it is worth TWICE what it costs. Of what other property can you say such a thing at the present time? Why is this so? Because a person, alone, cannot make an average, and because life-insurance can be bought at as low a price as it ever could.

If Insurable, call me up.

This is just as mucn a woman's war as a man's, and each day brings forth some new demand for the efficient services of women. Just at present the Red Cross calls for 300 women motor drivers for overseas service. There are hundreds of strong healthy girls over 25 in this Division who can qualify. MOTION PICTURES ESSENTIAL

The War Industries Board authorizes the following:

After a hearing before the priorities commissioner and other representatives of the War Industries Board of the claims of a committee representing the entire motion-picture industry in all its branches from the manufacture of the film to the projection of the picture on the screen, the following conclusions, tentatively reached, are announced:

(1) To the extent of the activities of the industry in connection with the several agencies of the Government, the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus, and other organizations actively engaged in war work, and also to the extent of its activities in supplying an educational medium and in furnishing to the great masses of the people a wholesome and comparatively cheap means of recreation, it should be, and is, recognized as an essential industry.

(2) This, in common with practically every other industry, embraces some elements of non-essentiality, and each member of the industry will pledge himself to discontinue all non-essential production and eliminate all wasteful practices, as these may from time to time be defined by the War Industries Board.

(3) Permits for the erection of new theater buildings and equipment of new theaters will be denied until we shall have won the war.

(4) Some localities are overtheatered, and where this condition exists no new theater will be opened to replace those retiring from business.

(5) There is used in the manufacture of films nitrate of soda, sulphuric acid, camphor, acetone, wood alcohol and linters, all of which are needed in producing explosives. The imperative necessity of economizing in the use of these materials is obvious. To that end, the practice of taking a number of negatives of a single picture will be discontinued, and in the future only one negative will be taken, save where the film is intended for export, when the number will be limited to two.

(6) Films that are worn out or obsolete and now carried in stocks will be "scrapped" and returned to the film manufacturer to be worked over and reclaimed and used in the manufacture of new films. In this way the drafts of the film manufacturer on war materials will be greatly curtailed.

(7) The studio directors will exercise the greatest care to insure that only wholesome pictures are produced.

(8) Manufacturers of machines for projecting the picture on the screen will be given preference treatment for the manufacture of spare and repair parts of existing machines and should encourage in every possible way the repair and use of all existing machines rather than junking them and replacing them with new ones.

(9) The manufacture of new tin containers and of iron boxes for packing and shipping film will be discontinued and substitutes used therefor, in order that tin and iron may be conserved.

(10) Those members of the industry, whatever the nature of their activities, will be accorded a degree of preference to enable them to operate, conditioned upon their rigidly observing the rules and regulations which will be prescribed by the War Industries Board.

THE MORNING AFTER THE CYCLONE

By F. Lee Chauvan

Look not upon the sky with color glowing,
There is no beauty there;
Its robe of azure is the mask deceptive,—
The mask its terrors wear.

Tell me no more of a day that's perfect,
The calm precedes the storm,
Nature its fury vents,—o'er havoc smiling,
It knoweth not its harm.

I lift my voice to the blue above me,
In deepened breath of pain,
And ask if, in pity, life's Great Ruler
Will me an answer deign.

Why are lips that in purest prayer tremble,
In cruel mock'ry hushed?
Why live wretches to profane the morrow,
And baby faces crushed?

My words float afar into the distance,
Full laden with my tears;
Then in impression strange of the moment,
My spirit, list'ning, hears:

"Thy Redeemer liveth when darkness threatens,
And rude winds wildly blow;
When the Morning breaks upon thy dreaming,
Thou shalt, awakened, know.'

ADVERTISING THE NEW DRAFT

Practically every medium of publicity in the United States has been placed at the disposal of the Government to insure a 100 per cent registration under the new man-power bill pending in Congress.

It is the purpose to carry to every man affected by the change in the age limits of the selective draft the message that he must register.

The campaign that has been mapped out for this purpose will probably be the most intensive ever undertaken by the Government, considering the time within which it must be carried through.

In addition to the news information, which will be conveyed to the public in the ordinary way through the daily newspapers, following are some of the methods which will be employed to emphasize the importance of the registration:

All of the 55,000 post offices and the 56,000 railroad stations in the country are to be placarded with posters.

These posters, made up in the form of four-page newspapers, will go into all factories. On the first page will be messages from President Wilson, the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, and other high officials calling on the Nation to respond. On the back page will be detailed instructions for the guidance of registrants. Across the two inside pages will be spread the poster announcement of the registration date and the ages affected.

Street cars will carry card legends and posters will be pasted up in all subway and elevated stations.

Between 5,000,000 and 6,000,000 hand bills will be circulated by rural free-delivery carriers along their 11,000 routes.

On the Sunday before registration day, which will be on a Saturday, clergymen from their pulpits will carry the message to their congregations.

On the Saturday preceding the registration pay envelopes in all the large factories and business establishments will carry little slips inside as reminders of the day.

School teachers, assembling their classes for the school year, will see to it that the children under their care remind their fathers and older brothers of the enrollment.

Every day during the seven days preceding registration four-minute speakers of the Committee on Public Information will explain the duties of the registrant to moving-picture audiences in cities and towns throughout the country.

The American Federation of Labor will co-operate with messages to all labor organizations.

The Women's Division of the Council of National Defense will enlist the aid of all women to aid in the registration.

Local ad clubs in the various communities will supervise local publicity.

Each State council of defense, acting under the direction of the National Council, will work in co-operation with local chambers of commerce and State and municipal authorities.

The French War Department has officially adopted the American Red Cross surgical dressing for use in all French Hospitals, according to a cablegram from Harvey D. Gibson, Red Cross Commissioner to France.

There is a Red Triangle hut in Holland which the soldiers call "'alf-way hut to heaven." It is for interned men.

The cowboys who bit the dust at the Salinas Rodeo at least have the satisfaction of knowing they helped pile up the box receipts which netted the Red Cross the handsome sum of $3941.73. Even falling stars can make things bright these cloudy war days.

Fifty Y. M. C. A. centers have been established in France for Chinese war laborers.

Ripling & Hollivet, members of the Building Industries Association, have the contract for the brick and concrete work for a two-story factory building at 1501 Central avenue for Grier & Winnett, to be occupied by the Standard Auto Body Works. The carpentry work is being done by the day under the supervision of the architect. C. C. Rittenhouse of this city.

Advertise it, or advertise for it in the Evening News.

The Second street tunnel, which has been expected to do so much for that part of the city of Los Angeles and beyond, will not materialize until after the war. The capital issues committee of the government has refused to approve the project under present conditions.

In the first German drive on the Western Front the British Y. M. C. A. lost all its equipment and huts it operated for the Portuguese troops.
